

Defining leadership – group discussion

What messages are coming through from the group about the nature of leadership?

Look at our leadership development strategy – does this capture the same message(s)?

What future opportunities can we create to embed these messages?

Can you take someone else's artefact to plan development work that would include that aspect/interpretation of leadership?

How can you use the definitions and interpretations to reach a definition of leadership and high potential leadership in your schools?

