

Becoming an effective leader 2024/25

This course aims to deepen the knowledge and understanding of primary teachers in how to be an effective leader.

Whether beginning the journey of leading a subject, a year group or overseeing the pupil premium strategy, having the skill set and confidence to lead change is fundamental to improving outcomes for pupils.

The six half day sessions, spread across the school year will include opportunities to put theory into practice with members of the Primary Phase Inspector team supporting teachers through the process.

With: Lindsay McCarthy, Primary Phase Inspector, HIAS
Jilly Myers, Primary Phase Inspector, HIAS

Learning Outcomes:

- A sound understanding of the process of effective middle leadership.
- Opportunities to reflect on core purpose.
- An insight into holding supportive conversations.
- Clarity around the process of identifying, managing, and evaluating change.
