

Stepping with Confidence into Secondary Senior Leadership 2022

A course for middle leaders or newly appointed assistant headteachers

What delegates said.....

“The opportunities to visit different schools was incredibly valuable.”

“Interesting looking at the different areas of school leadership which middle leaders would rarely have an opportunity to see.”

“Being able to meet and interact with others who are in a similar position and experience best practice across a range of different situations was the most useful aspect of this course.”

“The survey feedback was really useful in helping me identify my areas of improvement.”

Delivered by the Secondary HIAS Inspector, this in-depth programme supports the future senior leaders in our schools.

The course is aimed at established middle leaders who are thinking about the next steps in their career path, or highly aspirational teachers who are secure in their subject, who have led others and wish to explore their potential for senior leadership. It would also be appropriate for newly appointed Assistant Headteachers or lead practitioners.

With many schools now ‘growing their own’ future leaders, this programme will support with a focus on using other school contexts to challenge their thinking and encourage the development of a wider theoretical base with practical examples to inspire them. This will ensure that Governors continue to be able to appoint experienced leaders ready to tackle the broad challenges facing senior leadership teams today.
